The University of Nebraska-Lincoln and proudly announce the return of the Cornhusker Summer Forensics Institute. The dates for this year's speech camp schedule are the 15th of July through the 19th. Campers will arrive on the evening of Wednesday the 15th and leave the afternoon of Sunday the 19th.

This year's speech & debate camp will feature sessions on Humorous Interpretation, Extemporaneous Speaking, Dramatic Interpretation, Oratory, Poetry, Duo Interpretation, Informative speaking, and all forms of debate with sufficient interest.

Students of all abilities and levels of experience are welcome.

The cost the Speech camp will be $450, which will include:

- Four nights of stay at one of the university's air conditioned dorm rooms
- Three meals a day for each full day of the camp
- Four days of instruction and practice from top flight councilors including former national and state champions
- Computers available for all students for word processing and research
- Access to the University of Nebraska's Love Library
- Access to University of Nebraska-Lincoln's extensive collection of plays and literature
- A variety of handouts and tips that students can take back to their teams and coaches
- One on one coaching and group sessions with our coaching staff, featuring some of the best high school and college coaches in the nation.
- Scholarships based on financial need available
- New - Special advanced writing workshop for returning and/or experience students interested in public address. Students in this group will begin writing speech on the first day of camp with a focus on developing multiple drafts during camp and utilizing advanced rhetorical techniques.

The cost for commuter students is $250 and includes lunch on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Friday the 17th of July will feature a special coach's day. Coaches will be allowed to attend instructional sessions with their students as well as special "coaches only" sessions. Coaches attending will also be provided with lunch for the day as well as variety of handouts.

If you have suggestions for the camp, wish to obtain more information about it, or want to attend as please feel free to contact me. Our goal is to meet your needs and we want to accommodate your desires to create the best camp experience possible. Camp applications are due on June 15th.

Aaron Duncan
Director of Forensics
University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Oldfather Hall 410
472-6920, aduncan3@unl.edu